

State Resources for Human Trafficking Survivors

As we continue to identify more survivors of human trafficking in our Appalachian Counties, we are finding the need to access additional resources. The two primary calls I get are help with who to call if the adult survivor needs an advocate and who to call in a crisis situation when a survivor needs a short-term/crisis shelter or longer-term housing. Below is a non-exhaustive list. The county identified with the shelter and residential programs is simply the county the facility is in. Most accept individuals from other counties. You may also find many DV shelters will help as well. See <https://www.odvn.org/find-help/> for their contact info.
